

Special Notices.

I. Hauch, Merchant Tailor, No. 1 Commercial street, Ducommun's Block, Sept. 14-17.

The ever popular Bunni Bros. are doing a rushing business in their two cigar stores and it is quite natural that they should, for they keep none but good cigars, are obliging and attentive to their customers, and sell at reasonable prices. The stores are located at No. 12 Spring St. and 97 Main St. respectively. Give them a try. sept14-17

Furniture from the East is now being offered at greatly reduced prices, owing to the present low freight. Go and examine it at Johansen & Grosser's Furniture and Bedding establishment, 34 Main street, cor. Commercial. sept14-17

F. Adam, merchant tailor, has just received an elegant lot of cloths, cassimeres and suitings of the latest popular patterns. The stock is probably the largest of its kind to be found in the city, and no one can fail to be suited in making a selection. Call on F. Adam, Spring street, for your stylish suits. sept17

All kinds of sewing machines bought, sold and repaired. Come and see the new sewing machine, Singer, Sewing Machine Exchange, 30 Spring St. aug17

Moore's Restaurant, on Commercial street, is the proper place to go for a good meal, with a good cup of coffee or tea to drink with it. There is probably no restaurant on the Pacific coast where so many of the substantial and so many of the luxuries may be had for 25 cts. Don't forget the place—Moore's Restaurant, Commercial street. Private dining rooms have been newly fitted up for the accommodation of ladies. *

The principal organs of sense are concentrated to the face. It is therefore worthy of being covered by all gentlemen, with one of the superior hats which can be had at Desmond's, Main Street. mar4

Passengers by the steamer Mohongo leave this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Eastman's lime kilns are turning out a superb quality of lime. They are situated ten miles from town.

A meeting of Confidence Engine Company will be held to-day at 12 M. sharp.

Mr. W. H. Norway who was thrown from a wagon the other day, is laid up from his injuries.

The steamer Senator left yesterday for San Francisco with a fair passenger list.

County Auditor Gould's full majority is 1939. A recount of the vote would probably give him over 2000.

Miss Jennie Lees, the well known Spiritualist lecturer, is at the hot springs near San Bernardino.

A magnificent brick store is being erected opposite the city buildings. It will be occupied as a wholesale millinery establishment.

David Silverman, jeweler from San Francisco, is at room 20, Backman House, with a fine stock of gold jewelry of the most fashionable styles.

The ladies of the Baptist Society gave an elegant entertainment last night at the hospitable residence of Mr. E. H. Workman, on Main street.

Dr. Gale of Indiana who was here a few months ago is returning to Los Angeles by the steamer arriving to-day. He will make a valuable citizen.

The person finding a breast strap and tugs to a single harness, at some point between Los Angeles and four miles South, will be rewarded on leaving the same at this office.

Capt. Sayward of Riverside, claims that his circular city, Sayward, will be the most beautiful place in the world, when the projected improvements are finished.

The Anaheim Gazette protests against Judge Kohler running for Justice of the Peace in Anaheim. It says he has resided in Los Angeles for twelve months.

The celebration of the Mexican declaration of independence from Spain rule will take place to-day. Our Californians are to celebrate it with great enthusiasm.

The French Consul's carriage was badly damaged, yesterday, about three o'clock, by a collision at Temple Block. A wheel was broken, and the vehicle needs considerable repairs.

The Pino grape brought from France last year, by Don Mateo Keller, is bearing this year. His vineyards on Alameda street boast of 208 varieties of foreign grapes.

We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday, Mr. David Silverman, the well-known jeweler of San Francisco, who is making his periodical visit to this city. He received a hearty welcome from his old friends.

There is nothing more strongly illustrative of the dignity of official position than to see two able bodied policemen trundling a drunken squaw to the City Jail, in the hand cart, at the witching hour of midnight.

Among the recent departures from Wilmington were the bark Penang, Capt. Patton, for Burrard's Inlet; the schooner Una, Capt. Stoddard, for Navaro; the schooner Pacific, Capt. Madison, for Hueneue.

Ex-Manager Smith of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph line left for Prescott on Tuesday to take an interest in the enterprising firm of Levi Bashford & Co. We predict for Mr. Smith a successful business career in Prescott.

Auctioneer Noyes telegraphed yesterday to Durfee and Donithan and ascertained that Irene Harding's injuries were not at all serious. She runs in the handicap to-morrow and pools will be sold at the Fashion saloon to-night.

Among the shipments yesterday were, a lot of corn meal for San Francisco from the Aliso Mills; a lot of wool from Hellman, Haas & Co; 120 dry hides from Kalisher; 24 dry hides and 3 bales of hides from Heller; 225 joints of artesian pipe to Norwalk and Anaheim.

Lieut. Clinton B. Sears, U. S. Engineers, left yesterday for Boston to report to General Benham, where he will probably be put on active duty in that harbor. Lieut. Sears made many friends during his stay here, and carries with him their best wishes for his future prosperity.

Mr. Dillon, of the firm of Dillon & Kenally, left yesterday for San Francisco, to replenish their stock of goods. We are pleased to note the prosperity of this well known dry goods firm, who are receiving every day new goods from New York, as well as San Francisco.

San Bernardino had a novel funeral the other day. A vagrant squaw died suddenly, and some of her friends got her a white dress in which she was carefully placed, a hole was dug, and, without coffin, she was dropped in and covered; other vagrant squaws in the meantime singing a death song and dancing around the grave.

Not over a dozen checks a day are presented at the places designated by our banks, and no anxiety is manifested in any quarter regarding the present condition of affairs. The impression is general that both banks will open in a few days, when business will go on as if nothing had happened.

A riderless gray horse created considerable consternation on Fort street, last evening, about seven o'clock. He had a turned saddle on him, and between Third and Fourth street took the side walk, pedestrians giving him the right of way. He was captured shortly after, having done no damage.

The excavation for the Main street sewer has reached a point where the removal of the side track of the Main street & Agricultural Park railroad becomes a necessity. It will require two days to complete the sewer past this point and to re-lay the side track. During this time but two cars will be run over the road, making two trips per hour instead of the usual three.

The vote of Los Angeles is no criterion of our population, as hundreds of new comers, owing to their short residence, were not entitled to votes. In this office several of the employees lost their votes on this account, and we know of scores of new settlers of our immediate acquaintance who were not entitled to vote at this election. The real vote of Los Angeles county is about 6,000, and the vote of the city approximates 3000.

The classes of Mrs. Dubois, Miss Lucky, Miss Scott and Miss Rodgers, being overworked, the Board of Education has decided to divide these classes into two divisions, and admit one division from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and the other from 1 to 4 P. M. By this arrangement each pupil receives fifty per cent more attention than by the present method. Let the parents give this method a fair trial before condemning it. It has worked itself into popular favor wherever it has been tried.

A traveller who disputed a night's lodging at the St. Charles Hotel the other day, left sixteen pen-holders, two quires of paper and four ink-bottles in his room. His correspondence was supposed to be quite extensive, but it is now suspected that he was a poet, as he left several passionate odes addressed to a member of the demi-monde, who recently distinguished herself by marrying a professional gentleman. One of his love-sick ditties commenced:

"Oh! fallen one, Oh! frail but fair,
I'll meet thee on the golden stair."

Gehring when he found this supposed the man had committed suicide, but an active search on the roof and in the cellar dispated that idea. He is now known to have walked out of town and is probably in search of George W. Childs of the Philadelphia Ledger who, at last accounts, needed an obituary editor.

It was sad! A woman, too; and a member of one of the oldest families of Los Angeles. Drunk and disorderly was the charge, aggravated by the fact that she had become so debased as to lie around in the vineyards and the classic precincts of Sonora, in the most shameless manner. What are pride of caste and ancient name after such a spectacle? All the self-respect of woman lost, and all the glamour of an ancient name and proud lineage brought into the gutter by the raging demon drink. In the presence of a gaping crowd she reviled the policemen; she cursed them in mauling tones, totally lost to virtue and forgetful of shame. Similar spectacles are only too common, and unfortunately they generally belong to the oldest families in our midst, and we fear their reform is hopeless. We are not preaching a temperance lecture, but only give expression to our pent up feelings, as we saw a drunken, beer-eyed squaw dumped from the hand-cart this morning at two o'clock, in front of the jail. Where are Grant's Indian agents? Where, oh! where is the good old Indian Commissioner, Smith?

Mexican Independence Day.

This morning at 12 o'clock the celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence commenced with considerable enthusiasm. Many of our Spanish and California citizens assembled in Sonora, had the usual patriotic speeches, the crowd responded with earnest vivas, and, amidst the din of cannon, fireworks and brass bands, the long procession of military and civilians marched through the principal streets. The anniversary was successfully inaugurated and will be continued all day. We gladly bear testimony to the quiet and orderly conduct of the friends of Mexican Independence last night.

Passengers per Senator.

The following passengers left yesterday for San Francisco per steamer Senator: D D Meyer, L Rohle, P Dunlap, H Levy, Gen Stoneman, Mrs Gardner, Mrs H Hazard, F Kasten, D Scott, F R Ewer, Capt Sears, C A Lott, F R Washburn, W G Boner, Dr J J McLaren and W R Hirschfeld, R McKay, W Joonsom, H Eudrich; 5 in steerage.

WANTS TO BE AN INDIAN.

[The following savage effusion was picked up in front of the Post Office in this city.]

I want to be an Injin,
A Modock or Ute;
I'm tired of being a White man,
An unprotected brute;

I want to be an Injin,
A ward of Government.
I want to be an Injin,
A warrior of the plains,

I want to wield a tomahawk,
And scope out people's brains.
I want to build a campfire,
On a white man's breast,

And watch his dying agony,
With a noble savage zest.
I want to be an Injin,
With a tall commanding form,

And a greasy U. S. blanket,
To protect me from the storm.
I want to be an Injin,
And to fence the cooking art,

For then the darling clergymen,
Will come and take my part.
I want to be an Injin,
To beg and lie and steal,

With that placid sense of safety,
That a White man cannot feel.
MOUNTAIN MEADOWS.

EDITOR HERALD:—I notice the following in a San Francisco paper:

SMALL CHANGE WANTED.—There is a spice of grim humor in the official announcement that New England requires a specially large supply of small change, any one who has seen a "down East" merchant spend an hour hunting up change for a dollar bill rather than take a half-minute for a six cent glass of soda, will appreciate the force of the statement.

"Grim humor" is first rate; but how about the California merchant, or any other whiskey shop, who don't spend the sixtieth part of an hour in hunting up change for a twenty-five cent piece, rather than take fifteen cents for a ten cent "chawter-backer?"

He? Or didn't you notice?

"DOWN EAST" MERCHANT.

The Herald has a story of a meeting at Washington, between Secretary Delano and Prof. Marsh, the scene followed being such as is seldom witnessed. Delano called the Professor a liar, poltroon and similar epithets. The Professor answered that he would be indicted by the Senate for the Interior or any other man, and that he had treated Delano as a gentleman should, which Secretary Delano denied and left the room, saying that the Professor didn't know what a gentleman was.

The Daily Telegraph publishes a special telegram from Vienna, in which it is said that Montenegro has definitely informed the insurgent leaders that they cannot make war against the Porte. The Times in a leading article says that it is understood that Russia will attempt to arrange a conference representing the signers of the Treaty of 1876, with the object of influencing the Porte regarding the future government of the Slavonian Provinces.
